Form of request: (Form 02)

Form of request – Form 02:

1. The requester must use the prescribed form to make the request for access to a record. This must be made to the Information Officer of the private body. This request must be made to the address, fax number or electronic mail address of the body concerned.
2. The requester must provide sufficient detail on the request form to enable the Information Officer of the private body to identify the record and the requester. The requester should also indicate which form of access is required. The requester should also indicate if any other manner is to be used to inform the requester and state the necessary particulars to be so informed.
3. The requester must identify the right that is sought to be exercised or to be protected and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.
4. If a request is made on behalf of another person, the requester must then submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the head of the private body.
5. The Information Officers will, within 30 days of receipt of the Request, decide whether to grant or decline the Request and notice with reasons (if required) will be provided. In the event that a large volume of information is requested, or the Information Offices is required to search through a large volume of Records, the 30 day period in terms of which the Information Officer must decide whether to grant or refuse the Request may be extended for a further period, not exceeding 30 days. The Requester will be notified by the Information Officer of any extension sought.
6. Should the Information Officer be unable to locate a Record, or the Record does not exist, the Information Officer will, by means of an affidavit or attestation, notify the Requester which will include information in respect of the steps taken to locate the Record.
7. In the event that the Request for Access to a Record is unsuccessful, the Requester will be notified by the Information Officer, which notification will include:
 8. Adequate reasons for the refusal.
 9. The Requester's right to lodge to apply to a court for relief within 180 days of notification of the decision for appropriate relief in accordance with sections 56(3) (c) and 78 of PAIA.

10. The Information Officer may refuse access to a Record in the following instances:

- protecting personal information about a third person (who is a natural person), including a deceased person, from unreasonable disclosure;
- protecting commercial information that is held about a third party or a particular company or entity (for example trade secrets: financial, commercial, scientific or technical information that may harm the commercial or financial interests of the organization or the third party);
- if disclosure of the Record would result in a breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of an agreement;
- if disclosure of the Record would endanger the life or physical safety of an individual;
- if disclosure of the Records would prejudice or impair the protection of a person in accordance with a witness protection scheme;
- if disclosure of the Record would prejudice or impair the protection of the safety of the public;
- the Record is privileged from production in legal proceedings, unless the legal privilege has been waived;
- disclosure of the Record (containing trade secrets, financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information) would harm the commercial or financial interests of FSP Name;
- the Record is a computer programme; and
- the Record contains information about research being carried out or about to be carried out on behalf of a third party or FSP Name.

11. Remedies Available when an FSP Refuses a Request
Internal Remedies

The FSP does not have internal appeal procedure. The decision made by the Information Officer is final. Requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused, and the Requestor is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the Information Officer.

External Remedies

A Requestor that is dissatisfied with the Information Officer's refusal to disclose information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, may apply to a Court for relief. A third party dissatisfied with the Information Officer's decision not to grant a request for information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, apply to a Court for relief. For purposes of the Act, the Courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status and a Magistrate's Court designated by the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development and which is presided over by a designated Magistrate.

Fees payable for request – Annexure A:

- A requester who seeks access to a record containing personal information about that requester is not required to pay the request fee. Every other requester, who is not a personal requester, must pay the required request fee:
- The Information Officer of the private body must notify the requester (other than a personal requester) by notice, requiring the requester to pay the prescribed fee (if any) before further processing the request.
- The fee that the requester must pay to a private body is R140.00 (excl. VAT). The requester may lodge an application to the court against the tender or payment of the request fee.
- After the Information Officer of the private body has made a decision on the request, the requester must be notified in the required form.
- If the request is granted then a further access fee must be paid for the search, reproduction, preparation and for any time that has exceeded the prescribed hours to search and prepare the record for disclosure.
